

Dear FEN Members,

Our January meeting is coming together. In addition to bargaining information and comparisons, you have asked for updates on the coming special session, the Parents Bill of Rights and for Title IX updates (since the comment period for rulemaking is now closed). We have been able to secure a FEN- tastic slate of speakers for each of these topics. You won't want to miss it !

Date: Friday, January 27, 2023

Location: The Rosen Plaza Hotel, 9700 International Drive, Orlando, Florida 32819

Tentative Agenda:

7:45 am - FEN sponsored breakfast

8:30 am - General membership meeting

- Welcome - Thomas Bolling, President of FEN and Kevin Watson, Executive Director

Speakers and Discussion:

- Special session and a look ahead. A review of the recent special session on property tax reform and a look ahead to the 2023 session. Presenter: Brian Moore, General Counsel, Florida Association of District School Superintendents.
 - Parents Bill of Rights in Education – What you need to know (we think). Presenter: John Palmerini, Deputy General Counsel, Employment, Labor and Litigation, School Board of Orange County, Florida.
 - Title IX – an update on Title IX, and concerted activity/First Amendment/disciplinary actions. Presenter: Erin G. Jackson, Esq, Shareholder, Johnson /Jackson
 - District Reports: Your district reports, discussion of challenges and new issues.
- 1:00 pm - Adjourn

👉 RSVP - You can confirm your attendance here: RSVP. Your response will help us plan for the FEN-sponsored continental breakfast service.

👉 Hotel - FEN members needing a room can book a reservation at the meeting rate of $179.00 plus taxes (book prior to 12/27/22). Room costs are your responsibility.

We are looking forward to being together Friday, January 27th 2023 for another great half-day dedicated to expanding our collective bargaining and labor relations knowledge.